Municipal Council as a licensee paying the licence fee of Rs 1,150/-^{p.m.}/Immediately after the expiry of the licence, the Municipal Council proposed to auction the right to carry on the business in its premises. This action of the Municipal Council is challenged in this writ petition. As per the auction held by the Municipal Council, ^{in respect of} the right to carry on the business where the petitioner was carrying on, a highest bid offered is Rs.4350/- per month. If that is the case, any interference in this writ petition would definitely make the Municipal Council to suffer the injury. Therefore, I do not propose to interfere in this writ petition.

Accordingly, this writ petition is rejected.
